

FINE CONCERT FOR MISS BARBER

Large Audience Shows Appreciation of the Excellent Music Rendered.

An audience which was both large and fashionable last evening at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association enjoyed good music to the full. It was the occasion of the concert tendered to Miss Iola Barber, the violinist. There was an abundance of enthusiasm, and the rendition of the excellent program aroused the auditors.

Miss Barber played with the utmost appreciation, her technique being displayed to the full in the Beethoven number, D'Auria "Reverie," which, by the way, was written for her, and the De Beriot concerto, while the other numbers of her selection were fully as pleasing. Mrs. Whitney drew forth long and sustained applause by her interpretation of Brahms opus 117, while Miss Castle was perhaps at her best in the Wagnerian number.

Mrs. C. B. Cooper was in perfect voice, and her singing of "Alone" was received with acclaim, the number showing her full tones at their richest. Mr. Elston added to his local triumphs with a De Koven selection. While the performers refused encores, the program was most enjoyable, and there was a deluge of flowers for all. The program in full was as follows:

Violin and Piano—Sonata VIII, Op. 36. Allegro Assai. Tempo di Menuetto. Vivace.
Miss Barber and Mrs. Kelley.
Song—"For This" De Koven. Mr. Elston.
Piano—"Lullaby," Op. 117. Brahms. Mrs. Whitney.
Violin—
(a) "Reverie" D'Auria.
(b) "Koboldtanz" Eberhardt.
(c) "Berceuse Slave" Neruda.
Miss Barber.
Songs—
(a) "Alone" Augusto Rotoli.
(b) "Dreams" A. von Flietz.
Mrs. Cooper.
Piano—"Feuerzauber," from Die Walkure. Miss Castle.
Violin—1st Concerto (Militaire) De Beriot. Miss Barber.

Punahou Preparatory Grows.

The trustees of Oahu College held a well attended meeting yesterday afternoon, at which a mass of general business was put through. The most important was the opening of the new preparatory school, which building will be completed at the end of April. Owing to the growth of the preparatory school, the employment of a new teacher for that portion of the college was decided. The board also directed the purchase of seven relief maps, at a cost of $125.

Mrs. Frear's Lecture.

Mrs. Walter F. Frear's Emerson lecture at the Young Women's Christian Association was not so well attended as last, owing to the number of social affairs being given at the same hour.

The lecture was interesting, following the line of her former talks, extensive readings being made from Emerson's works.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Takahashi, business manager of the Hawaii Shinto, will leave by the Nippon Maru, for an extended visit in Japan.

Miss Emily Meyer, who was in the city visiting since early last year, will leave for the Bay City on the Ventura next Tuesday.

Ancient Hawaiian history will be represented on the stage of the Opera House by the Hawaiian Dramatic Company, Saturday evening, March 15.

Reports from Maui tell of high winds accompanied by rain storms. At Lahaina, where gales are unusual, there was a decidedly heavy blow. The wind is described as a regular norther.

The grand jury is still at work on criminal cases, and will not begin its investigations of the saloon evil, and will until next week. It is probable that the washhouse at Iwilei will also be given attention.

Chicago dispatches announce the engagement of Miss Jessie Ackerman, a missionary and Woman's Christian Temperance Union worker to a Russian nobleman. Miss Ackerman is well known in Honolulu.

Miss Maud Kinney will leave in the Ventura for an extended stay in Germany, where she will continue her musical studies for the next three years. She will first visit friends in London, Paris and Denmark.

A meeting of especial importance to all Baptists in the city will be held in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. All Baptists are earnestly requested to be present.

Weather permitting, Secretary Brown will spend Saturday afternoon on the slopes of Tantalus with the young men. This trip is for all comers. The start will be made at 2 o'clock from the Young Men's Christian Association, returning by 6.

Reports from Kau, Hawaii, show continued trouble for the authorities in their attempt to suppress the illegal liquor traffic. There were nearly a dozen cases in the courts of Kau of parties charged with illicit liquor selling, nearly all of whom were released.

The soldiers from the Warren pitched their tents at the Drilled grounds last evening, and are now comfortably camped until the repairs to the transport can be completed. The National Guardsmen who were gathered for drill were interested spectators of the regulars as they prepared to settle down for the night.

Madame Geneva Johnstone-Bishop has decided to appear in a concert to be given at the Opera House a week from Monday. Madame Bishop has almost recovered from the effects of her recent mishap, and feels fully able to sing again. She is now staying with Miss Landegren at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard, on King street.

The "At Home" of the literary circle of the Kiohama Art League will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the League. The event of the evening will be the lecture of Miss Lewis, of Oahu College, on Spenser, the early English poet. There will be as well vocal solos by Mrs. Annis Montague Turner, and violin solos by President Arthur Maxson Smith, of the college. There promises to be a large attendance.

Barney Joy and Duncan, both members of the police force, engaged in an altercation last night about 11:30, over the payment of debts. Duncan was in a chop house on Hotel street near Nuuanu when Joy entered. Hot words ensued, and Joy was invited to the street. Joy preferred to go to an empty lot, and Duncan came to blows, both striking each other several times. Joy finally knocked Duncan down.

No Gnashing for Her.

After preaching a sermon on the fate of the wicked, an English clergyman met an old woman, well known for her gossiping propensities, and he said: "I hope my sermon has borne fruit. You heard what I said about the place where there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth?"

"Well, as to that," answered the dame, "if I say anything to say, it is this: 'Let them gnash teeth as has 'em—I ain't.'" Argonaut.

THE BEST Family Cough Remedy

Every day we are asked by customers what Cough Remedy is best to take. Now, we want to sell you just what you want to buy. We also want to sell you what you will be satisfied with, so that you will buy it of us again.

It would be short-sighted and foolish for us to advise you to take one cough remedy in preference to others if that one had not proven itself to be trustworthy and satisfactory. Therefore, when we tell you that we consider the best family cough remedy, we do so advisedly. We know that it will stand the test.

PUTNAM'S Cherry Cough Comfort

Sorethroat

is a thing that easily runs into Bronchitis and Tonsillitis, if it is not taken care of. It is due to inflammation of the mucous lining of the throat and larynx. If this inflammation is not checked, it can do three things. It can attack the tonsils, whereupon it is called "Tonsillitis." It can attack the bronchial tubes, whereupon it is called "Bronchitis." If inside the tubes and "Asthma" or "Catarrhal Asthma" if outside the tubes. Or it can work down into the lungs and give you a consumption "scarce" (which may turn out to be real consumption).

PUTNAM'S Cherry Cough Comfort

draws out the inflammation in Sorethroat, Hoarseness and early stages of Tonsillitis and Bronchitis. It is quick, gentle, thorough and entirely natural.
